

Jem, Missing You

I wish this could be
A happy song
But my happiness disappeared
The moment you were gone Don't think I ever believed that This day will come
Now all I'm feeling
Is lost and numb
"And Oohh"
I know I promised
"Mmmmm"
That I will try but..

I
Yes I
Miss you
And its killing inside

I'll always be thankful For the time we had we were blessed i should celebrate but I feel too sad
our wonderful memories
just make me fall apart and it feels like somebody is stepping in my heart
"nooo"
i know i promised
"mmmm"
that i wouldnt cry

But i, yes i
miss you
and its killing inside
And i, yes i
miss you
want you by my side walking, holding hands
talking making plans touching my heart, my soul

i wish this could be
a happy song
but my happiness disappeared
The moment you were gone
tell me its not happening say its not as it seems tell me that im gonna wake up its just a bad dream please tell me that its fiction tell me its just a lie what ever you choose to tell me please say you didnt die

i, yes i
miss you
oh
i, yes i
miss you..want you by my side
i, oh i
right here by my side

here by my side
