

Jem, Stay Now

Daylight comes, daylight comes and you've gotta go
Breaks my heart, breaks my heart to have to watch you go
Wish I knew, wish I knew when you'll be back again
However long it's just too long until we meet again

Stay now, stay now just a little more
Cause this love, this love is what living's for
Stay now

Hide in bed, sheets overhead
Blocking out the sun
Feel like we are marooned at sea away from everyone

And I, I hate to say goodbye
I, want you to touch me one more time

Stay now, stay now just a little more
Cause this love, this love is what living's for
Stay now, stay now just a little more
Cause this love, this love is what living's for
Stay now
Stay now
Stay now
