

Jennifer Ellison, Baby I Don't Care (Right Version)

Well you can give me all your love and anything else you've got to
But don't pay it any mind if it seems like i'm acting coo
Well you can dress me in your mirror and give me kisses forever and a day yeah
But theres just one thing you don't have to say

Cause you don't have to say you love me and you don't have to say any prayers
No you don't have to say you love me baby its alright

(Chorus)

Cause honey i don't care
oh baby i don't care
oh honey i don't care
oh honey i don't care

Well you can turn the lights down low just some things are better that way yeah and you can tell me all your stories but please spare me the plays

Cause you don't have to say you love me
And you don't have to save any tears
No you don't have to say you love me baby its alright

(Repeat Chorus)

Deep in your eyes i see your thoughts
I know you want me sometimes it hurts
But you know some things are better left never said

Cause you don't have to say you love me and you don't have to say you care
No you don't have to say you love me baby its alright

Cause honey i don't care
I don't care
Oh baby please believe me
I, i don't care
Cause honey i don't care
I don't care
Oh when i tell you baby
I, i don't care
Ahh,ahh,ahh
I don't care
