Jennifer Kae, Trouble

Let's run all the red lights shoot out some tail lights cover our faces and take our I.D.
We're moving like shadows,go where the wind blows wreckless and foolish Take what we need
Where did it start, when will it end
A moment of calm before it starts again
Ref. Oh yeah, I'm sensing trouble Best run for cover until it's over,
 and we are always getting in trouble
We're bad for each other but better togehter ymm ymm oo better togehter Burn all our bridges, ignore all the warnings, rip up the pages from our history I'll go where you go, coz you know that I know, better to burn out the fade away Where did it start, when will it end
A moment of calm before it starts again
Ref. Oh yeah, I'm sensing trouble
Best run for cover until it's over,
and we are always
getting in trouble
We're bad for each other but better We might be wrong, we might be right right, it's not set in stone, not black or white
We might be strong, put up a fight, we don't belong all along you know there's trouble inside Oh yeah, I'm sensing trouble Best run for cover but better together always but we better together ou jee
but we better together
get in in trouble best fot each other but we better tohether
ou jeah
I'm sensing trouble
Best run for cover until it's over,
