

Jennifer Lopez, The Wish For Your Love

Come and whisper to me of a time
When you felt like this
With a unimaginable kiss that's made especially for me
You can't avoid it
I'm telling you to look
If I carressed you
You would melt away in my hands

CHOURS:

Dream with me
Come and let me feel it
The pasion that was born in me
With the fire of your love
Just one more night

I wantto be next to you and fly
Be your vice and a little more
The wish for your love
I want to provoke you slowly now that I have you here
What noboy else is suppose to give
That's what I'm giving you
You can't avoid it
I'm telling you to look
If I carressed you
You'd melt away in my hands

(CHOURS)

Here you have me, I'm all yours
What you've been looking for in me, I'm giving to you
