

Jennifer Lopez, Whatever You Wanna Do

Come on man, give me something I can move to Give me some of that funk

Yeah
Yeah

Wooo
Whoa
Whoa
Whoa
Whoa

Pulled up, at the red light
Cutie popped up on my left side
Window down, waiting for my reply
Not a word, I saw it in his eyes

Tell me something good baby
He said whatever you wanna do

He pulled to the curb, cops flash by
I got out with catwalk shy
Short skirt, golden brown thighs
Gucci heels, four inch high

Baby touch my face
My man said whatever you wanna do

Now I, I said I usually need some time to get inside
So I don't know why you and me feel so right
Baby we need tonight

We sippin', music all loud
Conversation, your lollypop mouth
You open up, sweet things come out
Whisper to me, what you talkin' 'bout
I said I think you know
He said whatever you wanna do

You stand up, taking my breath
It's your song so you do it two steps
I turned away, moved my hips slow
Your thoughts, fully exposed
Now we better stop playing
I said what are you gonna do

Now I, I usually take my time to get inside
So I don't know why you and me feel so right
You and I need tonight

Whatever you want (hey, hey)

It's all good

Now I normally take my time to get inside
So I, I don't know why it feels so right
So maybe we need tonight
Baby, we need (hey, yeah)

Whatever you want (hey, hey)
