

Jennifer Love Hewitt, Don't Push The River

Let's restore you
A good thing rushing these emotions
Just a big emotion that could leave us both alone
And words meant to circle
We can stay in laughter love, is ever after
So all that we need is a peaceful meditation
For the perfect situation
It's so hard to take it slow

Chorus:

(Ohh)
Don't push the river let it flow
Don't let the one who loves you go
Love will deliver let it go
Don't push the river let it flow

all this strongness confession, I just wanna runaway
I just wanna getaway for the every one we know
To a place out of the city
Where we could get a taste off
Where it might be a waste off
I know it could be so close to perfection
A different direction
No.....
Am weak at the point of letting go

Chorus:

You gotta remind yourself
To give it time
Even the sun can't make you blind
Why don't you close your eyes
And ease your mind
Let it all go....

Chorus x2
