

Jennifer Onesto, Love Changes Everything

When you've found someone new
And he's just like a dream
Can this really happen to you
As you sit there hoping
It will always be this way remember
Love changes everything

Love changes everything
No one can tell you what changes can bring
Before you promise to give him
The world on a string
Remember love changes everything

When you start building walls
Running out of things to say
You know it's just a matter of time
You forget all about the price you have to pay
Once love changes everything

You say you'll stay friends
But you know it ain't true
Forget about the promises made
And it's no one's fault when he avoids you like the plague
'Cause love changes everything
