

Jennifer Rush, Sense Sensibility

Top of the line
State of the art
Contours of a bird
Gliding through the world.

With a shine of the sun
Colours of the day
Open your door
And slowly I drive away.

This is your song
This is a song about you
As beautiful and stylish as your are
My star
A touch of sense and sensibility
I can do what I want
I can be who I wanna be.

Is step outside
Im looking at you
Exceptional to see
A class of its own
And the sun comes up again.

I smile at the sky
Receive certain look
As I drive on by.

This is you song
This is a song about you
As beautiful and stylish as you are
My star
A touch of sense and sensibility
I can do what I want
I can be who I wanna be.

Sense and sensibility

This is your song
This is a song about you
As beautiful and stylish as you are
My star
A touch o sense and sensibility
I can do what I want I can be who I wanna be.
