Jenoah, Ex-Suits

(screams)

I can't admit to my sin I have been folish, i've been tired I can admit my own self demise 'Cause all these things in life are wrong they've no importance at all

So turn and pose
next to the window
alone
with beliefs and a dream

I have seen impressions so renound
interpretations of the past there's so many stupid kids playing follow the leader all the way to the grave Can't accept it
Can't accept it
Can't accept it
Won't accept it
Can't accept it
Can't accept it

So turn and pose
next to the window
alone
with beliefs and a dream
so tell me, what does this mean to give it up for your scene that you belong to

Our safety net is gone so what are we to do when things start to change but i changed too
into something new something so divine
watch myself mutate
in this red white atmosphere

(screaming)
Our senses dulled
cause she said "hate" (x3)

So turn and pose
next to the window
alone
woah, so tell me, what does it mean to give it up for your scene
