

Jens Johansson, Carry Me

I sometimes wonder why the years go by, and in the end we always die but when I held you close, time almost froze, they say it's life but no one knows carry, me through eternity, we're holding the key, we'll always be free

this world has so much hate, we shouldn't wait, I feel the force of love and fate
I know you'll be OK, don't go away, we'll live to fight another day
