

Jeremy Camp, Looking Back

many times i take for granted just what youve done for me the heart in which youve planted is precious for you to see the cross in which youve hung is not a plcae for a king to be Lord the wounds that stung you did it all for, you did it all for me youve always been so faithful even when i dont deserve Lord help me to be more grateful of the love that you preserve

help me to look into your gracious eyes take the selfishness away from me o yeah yeah he died for me (X2) o yeah yeah

help me to look into your gracious eyes

he died for me
