

Jeremy Camp, Surrender

Purify this tainted soul
I'm tired of living life a fool
Soften up this heart in clay
To be a servant this I pray
A reflection of You I long to be
So Your kingdom I will see
I Surrender to Your throne
I Surrender to Your throne
And I will make my heart Your home
Oh I Surrender to Your throne
I've taken things I've thought my own
Only to reap what I sow
You've given back the years I've fought
An Ending love and grace You brought Eternal hope and peace You bring
And forever unto You I will sing
Forever unto You I will sing [x4]
And I surrender
And I surrender
And I surrender now
[x3]
Soften up this heart in clay
To be a servant this I pray
