

Jeremy's, Go!

You, at the station
Just go home
Don't be late now
I'll be fine and truly happy for you
Leave, not a word, don't you tell me
Don't speak and get away
Cause time it running out for both of us
I know Say it isn't so

No! Where's my jacket
I'm confused
Cause I'm stuck in the back of my head
If yo won't go I'll might go mad
Don't you stare at me like you're not scared
For the things you don't want me to say again
Just pray for something new and go
Say it isn't so cause time is running out and You just make me doubt we threw it all away now

I can't seem to make you stay. No more.
