

Jeremy's, I Know You Do

Why look away you want me to don't say you don't I know you do It's been too long to walk away
You're all I thought I had now stay

When I'm not going somewhere you could be It's okay thinking things ain't that bad Maybe something's gonna come around and gee me save me from calling out for help before I even look around at what is going on

I look for someone else like you Don't say I don't
You know I do
At night I'll find not what I seek But still I'll try Again, you'll see.
