

Jeremy's, I Want A Girl

I want a girl who wants me just as bad as I want her
If I ask her to stay she would say that she wants me more than anything else more than music and her dog
I want a girl who wants me more than anything

And when I'd tell her I'm sick she would bring me tea and apples Make me smile, make me glad, she would tell me that she wants me
more than anything else more than music and her dog
I want a girl who wants me more than anything

And after nine pm she'll be my pussycat
I'll be her big old dog and we'll make love untill the break of dawn
I want a girl, just like that, more than anything
