Jeremy's, White Trash

You said you'd do something about it. But if you really will I doubt it you got a false grin on your face sir why can't you give us what we've asked for That's a big house with hight ceilings it makes me think you got the feeling although you're way too dumb too make it a lot of money compensates it.

I got this feeling in my bones jumping all around you're just saying stuff we wanna hear makes me wanna shout mister big talk little white trash fool

If you were more then just a liar we would think twice 'fore starting fires now I suggest you take off run home back to your crib and leave us alone I hope someday somehow you'll find out That car and house ain't what it's about But then again I guess you'll never be that bohemian or clever.
