

Jericho, Resurrect Me

I know where the sun goes to, as she sinks into the ocean blue
But I don't know where my head has gone
When I swear I don't deceive you... 'cause I do
I know where the rain comes from, as she dances on the pavement
I don't know where to go from here; I have lost my way; I'm broken
I know where the angels go that fall from the grace of heaven
But I need to know: Am I saved? Am I saved? Am I saved?
Resurrect me, raise my soul (raise my soul)
Don't leave me reaching up, desperate and alone
Resurrect me, raise my soul (raise my soul)
Don't leave me reaching up, desperate and alone
Don't leave me alone
Fallen off of the path I roam, have I sinned against your honor?
Do you think by this cross I bear, I'm begging for salvation?
I know where the angels go that fall from the grace of heaven
But I need to know: Am I saved? Am I saved? Am I saved?
Resurrect me, raise my soul (raise my soul)
Don't leave me reaching up, desperate and alone
Resurrect me, raise my soul (raise my soul)
Don't leave me reaching up, desperate and alone
I'm so alone
I know where the sun goes to, as she sinks into the ocean blue
I know where the wind comes from, as she howls through the mountains
I know where the angels go: They fall from the grace of heaven
But I need to know if I'm saved... if I'm saved... I am saved!
Resurrect me, raise my soul (raise my soul)
Don't leave me reaching up, desperate and alone
Resurrect me, raise my soul (raise my soul)
Don't leave me trudging through the memories that I hold
