

Jeris Johnson, 27 Club

I guess the hardest part is
I gotta be this heartless
Yeah that's the path I've chosen
Covered in guns and roses

You know I'm never scared though
Head strong lookin down the barrel
You got a finger pull it
I'm gonna bite that bullet

Before you lay me down
I gotta get this out

I'm loving this too much
I already taste it in my tongue
I'm boutta get fucked up
Might get in the 27 Club (oh oh)
Keep covering the scars I hide
Been waiting for this all my life
My life all my life
I'm loving this too much

You know there aint no one like me and I
Keep throwing til my knuckles bleed and I
Get wasted on the energy
Tonight I could die smiling

Ugh now all these bitches are treating me like I'm Jesus fuck
They pay me to love em and leave em and tear em to pieces uhh
I'm armored up maybe that's my weakness
I live it up til I'm barely breathing

Before you lay me down
I gotta get this out

I'm loving this too much
I already taste it in my tongue
I'm boutta get fucked up
Might get in the 27 Club (oh oh)
Keep covering the scars I hide
Been waiting for this all my life
My life all my life
I'm loving this too much
