

Jerk, Killing Me Killing You

Why should I try?
You'll make me just like you
And I will deny
The things you say are true
Alive when I'm high
This time I'll break on through
I'll tell you a lie
So you can hate me too
Why
Do ya think?
Why
Do ya think?
I think you've lost me
This time it's all brand new
It's killing me killing you
I'll take the black with the blue
You're killing me killing you
Ashamed of the things
That seem to make you proud
I can hear when you cry
Because the shit's so loud
Why
Do ya think?
Why
Do ya think?
I think you've lost me
This time it's all brand new
It's killing me killing you
I'll take the black with the blue
You're killing me killing you
Now you're just like the fucks that beat you up.
