

Jerry Cantrell, What It Takes

It takes a mountain of faith
Rivers flowing pain
It takes a hammer on a nail
A whole lotta love... yeah...
It takes a lifetime of working
A touch of understanding
It takes a wind in the sails
Little Children singing... yeah..
It takes a sun buning knowledge
An ocean full of feeling
It takes a certain kind of hunger
A whole lotta love... yeah...
