

Jersey, Generation Genocide

Well he counted his cards but theres nothing left in his deck drugs, money, and alcohol broke his hollow soul but now hes at his knees screaming,
"Self Inflict Addiction!" too far gone, too far gone to take a helping hand

Generation, Generation Genocide!
Kamikaze casualties are falling by my side
Its a generation genocide
Kamikaze casualties are falling by my side
And I see the sun rising, rising up again and I wish could see the scene for my fallen friends

Well I been there and I done that and Ive walked that line Bloody knuckles and rumbles is love hate with this town I said your own friends running round town throwing your name on the ground.
No back, No spine
Aint no friends of mine

Generation, Generation, Genocide!
Kamikaze casualties are falling by my side
Its a generation genocide
Kamikaze casualties are falling by my side
And I see the sun rising, rising up again
and I wish could see the scene for my fallen friends

With you!
