

Jess Klein, Cloud Song

Said one cloud to the next,
How nice that we can rain
On the ground it seems they let
Water wash away their pain

So, dont fade out
I will lend you my silver lining
I do not need to dress this proud

Said the daughter to her mother,
There are days when I go nowhere
But I know how I got here
Thanks for cheering for me all these years

And dont fade out
I will lend you my silver lining
I do not need to dress this proud
And I would like to lay my riches down, down
I would like to lay my riches down, down

Said the smile to the tear,
Youre the reason I am here
You know its not every day
That I have the chance to mean it
When I say

Dont, dont fade out
I know I will lend you my silver lining
I do not need to dress this proud
And I would like to lay my riches down, down
I would like to lay my riches down, down
I would like to lay my riches down, down
Down
