

Jesse McCartney, Kissing you goodbye

Doesn't matter much what you will say
Cause i am leaving you now anyway
Gonna have some fun just for a change
And you can't do a thing to make me stay
Gonna throw away your picture in the rain
Cause they don't mean a single thing
I just wanna have some fun with someone
So bye bye baby bye bye
Kissing you goodbye
Starting a new life
Now i know that finally i'm done and through with you
You are not the one who can give me all
Kissing you goodbye
No more needs to try
Now i know exactly what i wanna do in my life
You will not be there
Cause we have nothing more to share
I have never been so satisfied
With anything before in my life no no
Leaving you was the best thing i could do
I'm so glad that we are through
Kissing you goodbye
Starting a new life
Now i know that finally i'm done and through with you
You are not the one who can give me all
Kissing you goodbye
No more needs to try
Now i know exactly what i wanna do in my life
You will not be there
Cause we have nothing more to share
Finally
I can see
We were never meant to be
Kissing you goodbye
Starting a new life
Now i know that finally i'm done and through with you
You are not the one who can give me all
Kissing you goodbye
No more needs to try
Now i know exactly what i wanna do in my life
You will not be there
Cause we have nothing more to share
Kissing you goodbye
No more needs to try
Now i know exactly what i wanna do in my life
You will not be there
Cause we have nothin more to share
Kissing you goodbye
