

Jesse McCartney, Make Up

I wanna see you when I wake up, wake up, wake up
'Cause you look good without make up, make up, make up
Ain't nothin' on ya phony, phony, phony
You're sexy and ya know it, know it, know it

A little dose of you helps me to start my day
Baby girl, I'd really love to see your face
And don't be surprised if you catch me gazing (gazing)

I'm takin' pictures in case you ever go away
'Cause baby, I don't wanna miss a thing
'Cause you're too captivating (vating)

I wanna see you when I wake up, wake up, wake up
'Cause you look good without make up, make up, make up
Ain't nothin' on ya phony, phony, phony
You're sexy and ya know it, know it, know it

You're sexy but ya know it, know it, know it
You're sexy but ya know it, know it, know it
You're sexy but ya know it, know it, know it
You're sexy but ya know it

Baby girl, you don't even gotta try
'Cause just your looks along really light my fire
'Cause your body's blazing
Baby, when we go to sleep at night, oh, I don't wanna close my eyes
Why dream when I can have the real thing?
(the real thing, the real thing, the real thing)

I wanna see you when I wake up, wake up, wake up
'Cause you look good without make up, make up, make up
Ain't nothin' on ya phony, phony, phony
You're sexy and ya know it, know it, know it

You're sexy but ya know it, know it, know it
You're sexy but ya know it, know it, know it
You're sexy but ya know it, know it, know it
You're sexy but ya know it

Girl you know that you got me, and I thought you should know
Baby girl, you're so exotic from your head to your toes
And I just thought I should tell you, baby
You're the reason I'm going crazy
(the reason I'm going crazy, the reason I'm going crazy,
the reason I'm going crazy, the reason I'm going crazy)

I wanna see you when I wake up, wake up, wake up
'Cause you look good without make up, make up, make up
Ain't nothin' on ya phony, phony, phony
You're sexy and ya know it, know it, know it

You're sexy but ya know it, know it, know it
You're sexy but ya know it, know it, know it
You're sexy but ya know it, know it, know it
You're sexy but ya know it

You're sexy but ya know it
