

Jesse McCartney, Turn it up

Let me introduce myself for those of y'all who don't know
It's me who kicked down the door back in 2004
Thought you knew me when I was bringin' beautiful soul
That was a preview let me shoot you the first episode
Make ups and break ups yeah I fell in and out of love
Wrote it all down for you to to look it up
21 years hopping in and outta clubs
What would you do in ma shoes you be livin' it up
But don't get it twisted
Yeah there's a piece that you never see
Tryin' to keep the sh*t from affecting ma whole family
Caught in the middle (Who's a friend? Who's an enemy?)
I do what I can cause in the end im where I wanna be
I don't needa talk about it (No) just let the record play
Hate it or love it, it don't matter cause im here to stay
Ladies get yo  up give it a little shake
And fellas throw yo hands up (up up up)
