

Jesse Mount, Breathe

sometimes you cannot hide what burns you deep inside even though you may have tried you know it can't be denied so you
go through the doors that lead you here
but now
you feel like you got somethin to fear you know you gotta
breathe
before the end of the day
you know you gotta
breathe
before it all slips away
you know you gotta
breathe
before it's too late
breathe
before it all slips away
don't fear what you can not hear or see or smell or feel coz if it's all in your mind then none of it is real but i can assue you, love I'll leave your heart the way that i found it no i won't hurt you
i'll leave it in tact
every last bit
go through
you feel
breathe
before the end of the day
you know you gotta
breathe
before it all slips away
you know you gotta
breathe
before it's too late
breathe
breathe
breathe
breathe, yeah
breathe
