

Jesse Powell, Are You Missin' My Love?

(chorus)

Are you missin' my love
Are you missin' my lovin'
Are you missin' my love
Are you missin' my lovin'

(verse 1)

You are the only one I've ever loved and I let my defenses down, down Then you just up and took Then you just up and took your love away now suddenly your back around

Are You
(chorus)

(verse 2)

You knew that I would wait here for your love
I was nothing more then just your stand by You never thought I could
I never thought I would get over you
But you were wrong
& so was I

Now ain't it a shame baby you never even gave our love a try (damn baby)
your the one to blame baby
so wipe your eyes
the tears you cry
save them for another guy

(chorus to end)
