

Jesse Powell, You Should Know

Don't try to tell me you don't know what I feel
When all I do is try to please you
Do what I can to show my love is for real,
Still you just push me away
Come on girl give me wutcha know I deserve
I only want what is right
Don't leave me hanging with my heart on the verge,
Of breaking down every night

Chorus

Cause you should know by now, without any question
I live and die for the love of you
When the sun don't shine
I'll still be by your side
So baby you should know....that I love you

And everything you do in my mind
But now I need it for real, from you baby
I know inside ya that there's someone thats kind,
But I dunno how long I can deal with it.
Oh.....
Come on and give me what you know I deserve,
I only want what is right
Don't leave me hanging with my heart on the verge,
Of breaking down every night

(Chorus)

Cause no other man will know you like I do...
And no other man will treat you like I do...
Only a man who really loves you,
Would stand the test, that you've put me thru
For your heart..

(Chorus)

Cause you should know by now, w/o any question.
I live and die for the love of you
When the sun don't shine...I'll still be by your side
So baby, you should know...that I love you
I love you...I love you...(You should know)
(until fade)

When the sun don't shine...still be mine

So baby you should know
