

Jesse, Rainbow

I saw a rainbow
through the clouds
it had to rain for
it to come out
I saw a halo
over your head
you were my angel
I must've been dead

so I had to say goodbye
to get to the gold on the otherside

I saw the future
after our past
I wasn't ready for it to last I saw a photo
it made me laugh
it gave me fomo
it made me sad

so I had to say goodbye
cause I knew it was time to cry
so I had to say goodbye
to get to the gold on the otherside

I've had some others there won't ever be another like you you give me butterflies I might puke you mother fucker you're too easy to love my mama even like's you too
