

Jesse Sykes, Lonely Still

This is where my ship has run aground
Stuck in the mud of the puget sound
I came from the great lakes
And i watched them turn dry
The sky turned black & i cried

I never thought heartbreak would follow me 'round
Well, i'm lonely
Well, i'm lonely still

Hammered hearts tired of being young
It wasn't you, it could have been anyone
I came from the great lakes
And i saw them turn dry
The sky turned black & i cried

I never thought heartbreak would follow me 'round
Well, i'm lonely
Well, i'm lonely still
