

Jessica Andrews, You're The Man (That Brings T

Sitting here all by myself with my heart up
On the shelf
This house dont feel like home to me
I watch the clock up on the wall, Time stands
Still thats all
When Youre out of reach I wish you could see
Since you went away Ive been feeling this way
What I really want to stay

I wanna see you, I wanna be with you, I wanna
Feel you
And put my arms around you when I hold you
I wont let go of you baby
If I could kiss you Id make love to you cause
I need you
Like I never needed anybody, oh baby cant
You see
Youre the man that brings the woman out of
Me

I took a walk out in the rain, Knowing that
You feel the same
With each goodbye Im closer to you
Though the miles pull us apart, We both knew
It from the start
Together we can make it through
Every minute that youre gone is a minute too
Long
Right heres where you belong

I wanna see you, I wanna be with you, I wanna
Feel you
And put my arms around you when I hold you
I wont let go of you baby
If I could kiss you Id make love to you cause
I need you
Like I never needed anybody, oh baby cant
You see
Youre the man that brings the woman out of
Me

And when we are together its like nothing
That Ive ever felt before
When you lay your hands on me
Its lightning and its thunder, this sweet
Spell that Im under
Baby, Youre all that I need

I wanna see you, I wanna be with you, I wanna
Feel you
And put my arms around you when I hold you
I wont let go of you baby
If I could kiss you Id make love to you cause
I need you
Like I never needed anybody, oh baby cant
You see
Youre the man that brings the woman out of
