

Jessica Folker, If I Was Your Girl

She don't understand what she's got She don't realise she's got the lot I've got my pride but in this circumstance, I'd step in her shoes given half the chance

So when you're tired of her not appreciating, there's a tender love right here waiting

If, I was your girl,
all of my world would be in sunshine
If, I was your girl,
I'd cherish the day
And I'd make you mine
If, I was your girl

Ooh, it would mean that much to me, if, I could be in your arms constantly I would not let you down the way that she does, and it seems to me it's obvious If it's a mutual love that you're contemplating, just call my name, and I'll be waiting

If, I was your girl,
all of my world would be in sunshine
If, I was your girl,
I'd cherish the day
And I'd make you mine
If, I was your girl

They say love is blind, especially when you're in it Step out into the light, If only for a minute Say the word and let's begin it

If, I was your girl,
all of my world would be in sunshine
If, I was your girl,
I'd cherish the day
And I'd make you mine
If, I was your girl
