

Jessica Mauboy, Been Waiting

Weve been friends for so long, I cant deny,
These feelings are so strong I keep hot inside,
Wanna tell you but I cant find the words to say,
So afraid if I do things will never be the same,
I gotta work it out, times really running out,
Dont know what to do but I know I gotta say it now,
Dont wanna lose and friend but why should I pretend,
That I dont love you when Ive waited so long,

(So long) been waiting (so long) been waiting (so long)
I cant hold it back cause Ive been waiting so long,
Been waiting (so long) been waiting (so long)
Been waiting (so long) Ive been waiting so long,
Ive been trying to tell ya, tell ya,
That we should be together, everyday,
Boy youre giving me something, something, oh
And Im crazy in love with all you do,
Boy youre giving me something, something, something
Something, something, something, something, something

When you come to me and say some other girl has broke your heart once again,
Will you every learn, all this time Ive been patiently,
Hoping that you would notice me, you need to know that Ive been waiting so long,

(So long) been waiting (so long) been waiting (so long)
I cant hold it back cause Ive been waiting so long,
Been waiting (so long) been waiting (so long)
Been waiting (so long) Ive been waiting so long,
Ive been trying to tell ya, tell ya,
That we should be together, everyday,
Boy youre giving me something, something, oh
And Im crazy in love with all you do,
Boy youre giving me something, something, something
Something, something, something, something, something

(So long) been waiting (so long) been waiting (so long)
I cant hold it back cause Ive been waiting so long,
Been waiting (so long) been waiting (so long)
Been waiting (so long) Ive been waiting so long,
Ive been trying to tell ya, tell ya,
That we should be together, everyday,
Boy youre giving me something, something, oh
