

Jessie Daniels, Everyday

What are you thinking
Doing the things you do
What are you wanting
Cause all I want
Is you to see
Everything you are to me
And how you and I could be
Every dream come true

Everyday I try to tell you
Every time I think I get through
You put up a wall your so invincible
Nothing could keep me away
I'll find a way
Everyday

What are you scared of
What do you have to loose
You'll never know
If all you do
Refuse and hide
From the door thats open wide
Ignore the voice you hear inside
And everything I say

CHORUS

And I won't give up
Cause you mean that much
No matter what you are going through
I've waited this long
My love is stronger than forever
Strong enough to keep loving you
