

Jessie Murph, Pray (waking up but wishing that you don't)

I thought I wanted love till you showed me what it was
I've never been golden but I swear that I showed it
It's a blessing and a curse, for the better, it's only worse
Wouldn't wish this on no one, it's one hell of a low one
We're going up, we going down
We can run it back, we can work it out, but, no
Late at night, going out my mind
Praying that the sun don't rise, like, no, mm

Waking up but wishing that you don't
(Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)
It's something that I pray you'll never know
(Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)

Up all night, drinking liquor like it's water
Waking up, knowing I'm somebody's daughter, but I don't know a lot about my father
Maybe that's the reason I don't do shit like I oughta, no
I need some medicine, this shit that my head is in Got me thinking, crushing it, lying in this bed I'm in
Up all night, drinking liquor like it's water
Maybe that's the reason I don't do shit like I oughta, no

Waking up but wishing that you don't
(Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)
It's something that I pray you'll never know
(Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)

You might love the highs but you ain't seen the lows
You don't know the half of it and I pray you'll never know
Woah

Waking up but wishing that you don't (Wishing that you don't)
(Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)
It's something that I pray you'll never know
(Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)

You never know
You never know
You never know
