Jessie Murph, Trust Issues

Baby, you've been a lil different lately
I know you're gonna call me crazy
You always do
Hate me, tell me that you're done
Just break me
I'm falling on my own, can't save me
Turn me blue

Who in the hell let me fool for you
I should've never trusted you
Cause now I got trust issues, trust issues, trust issues
Now I got trust issues, trust issues, trust issues

Maybe I've been a lil distant lately
Only cause my heart is breaking
Right in two
But I won't waste another minute crying
I should've known that you'd been lying
That's all you do

Who in the hell let me fool for you
I should've never trusted you
Cause now I got trust issues, trust issues, trust issues
Now I got trust issues

Now I got trust issues
