You fit
Better than a pair of jeans, baby
Fill me up better than a feast, baby
Don't think I could ever let you leave, baby
Yeah

You fit
Like your mama made you just for me, baby
Stroke making me forget to breathe, baby
That face looking like a seat, baby
Yeah, yeah

Only been about a month but my body been on this is baby daddy baby cuz I might let you do it
I might let you shoot it
Cause she need some milk
She need some real, real bad
Real bad
My ego get built up
Cause I can get you bricked up
Like I'm buildin a crib up with no effort
We can play house no pressure
Call me mama, I'll call you papa
We can pop off
We can pause if you need it
I get conceited when you say that she the best

Say it again (she the best)
Say it again (she the best)
Say it again (she the best)
Take me to bed

Cause you fit
Better than a pair of jeans, baby
Fill me up better than a feast, baby
Don't think I could ever let you leave, baby
Yeah, yeah

You fit
Like your mama made you just for me, baby
That stroke making me forget to breathe, baby
And that face looking like a seat, baby
Word, yeah

The atoms between us have melted away and we're one tonight
When I see the white of your eyes
I know I'm doing it right
I love how you coach me when I'm close to the peak
And I feel you growing but love how you hold back for me
I get conceited when you say that I'm the best

Say it again (she the best)
Say it again (she the best)
Say it again (she the best)
Take me to bed

You fit
Better than a pair of jeans, baby
Fill me up better than a feast, baby
Don't think I could ever let you leave, baby
Yeah, yeah, yeah

You fit
Like your mama made you just for me, baby
That stroke making me forget to breathe, baby
That face looking like my favorite seat, baby

Seat baby
Yeah, yeah, yeah
