

Jessie Reyez, STILL C U

The best advice I ever got was just to let it go□
Family says I smile a lot more when I'm on my own
But when I finally feel free□
you get the urge to message me□
Swear you never miss a beat□
and the song is on repeat□

I still see you in my sleep□
How come I still see you when I dream
I been running from the truth□
but it don't matter what I do
It never matters what I do□
I just can't get away from you□
Can't get away from you□

When you got a girl I got myself an enemy□
Cuz I need all your attention like a centrepiece□
And though we're both trying to be friends□
And though we're both way past the end□ of everything we could have been□
My broken heart still lets you in□

Good thing I never held my breath□
I would have died an early death□
Waiting for you to value me□
Waiting for you fail my test□(ya)
F is for faking love
F is for forgetting us□
F is for feelings that faded while you fucked around and left me□
down down down□
With every girl that you found found found□
I'm like Mary going down down down□
You're like a dog in a pound pound pound□
Had me looking like a clown clown clown□
Got me out here crying out loud□
Especially when the sun go down□
Hit me when the sun go down
