

Jessie Ware, Alone

take the weight off my shoulders see, I won't make the same mistakes when I'm alder cause with every step you take I'm getting colder some come a little closer just come a little closer

I don't want somebody else to call my name no, I don't want somebody else when you could just say say that you're the one who's taking me home cause I want you on my skin and my bones knocking me off my feet just that I'm the one that you need say that you're the one who's taking me home so I can get you alone just wanna talk a little longer so baby, won't you wanna stay a little later? cause I couldn't watch you watch me forever cause I know you later and you know I never

say that you're the one who's taking me home so I can get you alone

I don't never need to walk away you could just say /2x

say that you're the one who's taking me home
