

Jessie Ware, Lift You Up (feat. Romy)

Why do I think too much but not at all?
Why do I back myself against the wall?
Why do I rush too fast to make it stop?
Didn't we almost have it all?

I've been livin' in the past
Always thinkin' this won't last
No one else can hold us back
They say, "Listen, Romy"
They say, "Listen, Jessie"

Now, I'm gonna lift you up inside this feeling
Now, I'm gonna give you something to believe in
I know something, the good life's coming
You give me something that keeps me movin' on
Now, I'm gonna lift you up inside this feeling

Why don't we stay in the here and now?
Baby, you know we'll work it out

I've been livin' in the past
Always thinkin' this won't last
No one else can hold us back
They say, "Listen, Romy"
They say, "Listen, Jessie"

Now, I'm gonna lift you up inside this feeling
Now, I'm gonna give you something to believe in
I know something, the good life's coming
You give me something that keeps me movin' on
Now, I'm gonna lift you up inside this feeling

Love, here we are
Ready for love
Here we are
Ready for love
Here we are
Ready for love
Here we are (Ooh)
Listen, everybody!

Now, I'm gonna lift you up inside this feeling
Now, I'm gonna give you something to believe in
I know something (I know something)
The good life's coming (The good life's coming)
You give me something that keeps me movin, on (You give me something)
Now, I'm gonna lift you up inside this feeling
