

Jessie Ware, Midnight

You're special
your truly
you pull me deep into my deepest desire can you meet me in the midnight?
call me
cause I know you
you know me
when I'm fading
you're the only one who inspires

maybe I love you
maybe I want to
maybe I need you

maybe I love you
don't let me fall through now that I need you
I feel the magic is never gonna fade
I ain't got nothing to say but you're precious

I'm scheming
keep dreaming
about a world where we're an item can I miss you in the daylight?
whenever you're around
I'm lifted!
so lifted
and this moment is made for you and I to go higher higher /3x
can you meet me in the midnight?
