

Jesus And Mary Chain, Cherry Came Too

sung by Jim when she walks towards me i feel something crawl beneath my skin and all the electric stars are shining beneath my skin and cherry takes me to the place above with barbed wire kisses and her love we're going where the oceans blue kick the dust and you can come too in the light of all my darkest mornings things fall into place and all the soft orange coloured dawns fall into place and cherry's scratching like a grain of sand the trigger itch in the killer's hand me and cherry are so extreme making love to the sound of a scream oh cherry honey you got me stuck on a rope you got me running around with the fear in my head for you and i want you
and i'll give you my head and all the things it said and i'll give you my thoughts if those things weren't lost and i'll give you my soul to beat it with your pole i'm going to give you my head you could kick it dead
come on and kick me dead come on and push me down come on and drag me down oh cherry be bad
come on and kiss my head
