Jesus And Mary Chain, Sidewalking

another day goes by me another day of life without you and as I look around me I feel so lonely there's noone no one here beside me no one here to help to see me through to see me through to see me through 'cause I need you 'cause I need you been standing still for much too long and I realise there's something wrong I'm feeling strange, I need a change and I realise that there's something wrong there's something wrong there's something wrong another two years over don't understand what's happened to me these days are so much colder up against the fire, dont feel any heat cracked up years behind me cracked up years ahead are all I see are all I see
