

Jesus And Mary Chain, Write Record Release Blues

If that phones keep ringing
I'm gonna lose some cool
I'm in my closet and I'm okay
Leave me in peaceful abject misery
I'm a young man now but
There's an old man on my back
As he gets stronger I get weak
Someday soon he'll take the place of me
If that scum keeps rising
I'm gonna jump this ship
Tell me where did it go wrong
I can't fix it I'll just sing my song
You can deride and mock me
That's been done before
I won't get on my knees for you
I won't be a record business whore
