

Jesus On Extasy, Neochrome

She feels the needle in her skin she feels the liquid silver in her veins she's climbing deeper down into the white rabbits hole she's going on a journey into wonderland

Neochrome!
neochrome!

Now she opens her eyes
everything is too bright she's longing to return into this online dreamworld she takes another needle, now she takes a higher dose connects it to the interface the mainframe lost control

Neochrome!
neochrome!

Now she can fly
she is high
close to die
she drowns
in sparkling lights
she feels free
like a child

Neochrome!
