

Jesus On Extasy, Stay With Me

I'm chasing the Shadows.
i'm running out of time this time.
They say that it's Hopeless anyway.
You're breathing, you're fighting.
And I can see it in your eyes.
I will dry the tears you hide.

So stay with me
I'd dedicate my Soul
Do anything
Just to let you know
How I feel.
I'm begging you to Stay with me

Fate's twisted
I'm restless
I'm hanging on this fragile string
The candle's burning on both sides tonight
This bed out of roses
The thorns are cutting up my veins
And I can't face another day

So stay with me
I'd dedicate my Soul
Do anything
Just to let you know
How I feel.
I'm begging you to Stay with me
