

Jet, You Don't Look The Same

speak so that she could understand your taking to long dad weep cause she needs to see you can before you fell you ran all I hear are the same excuses all you do is complain

she... she's like a cancer on my brain a fever with no name no... nobodys's going to explain the thoughts which you contain all I hear are the same excuses all you do is complain cause you don't look the same cause you don't seem the same cause you don't see what's going on And I don't know why you can't lose, you lose the rest of us we have to choose, we do but you don't look the same you don't seem the same cause in my dreams you fall apart you come and tell me who are you the past is overdue

and you don't seem the same
