

Jettie, At The Cross

I&#039;m at the cross, at roads we met, with tales that died
Houses from then seem so proud but still the same
I just go for change I just go for change &quot;you know they change they will not stay the same&quot;

they&#039;ve got a hold on me, the memories & hands all over me, you&#039;ve got hands all over me
I just go for change I just go for change
I know the words to say
&quot;you know they&#039;ve changed, & will not stay the same&quot;

Hands all over me, you&#039;ve got hands all over me
Hands all over me, you&#039;ve got hands all over me
I just go for change I just go for change
I know the words to say
&quot;you know they&#039;ve changed & will not stay the same&quot;
So, you change, you change, you go.. gone
So you go
