

Jettie, Inside Your Vaults

Leave now silent combats leave now for your own good save your smile and all the words you hide you're the wire so I cut you off

Im sorry for what you did, Im sorry for what you were these roads always come back the love always turns right? these roads always come back the pride never turns right?

Im sorry for what you did, Im sorry for what you were so leave now silent combats leave now save your smile and all the words you hide you're the wire so I cut you off now

Im sorry for what you did Im sorry for what you where these roads were leaving now the roads are never coming back the page always turns right, right?
